How to Utilize This Lesson for Patrollers:

This file will print as 5"x8" and can be glued to index cards. Punch a hole in the corner and use a split ring, brad fastener, etc. to create an easy, portable, flip chart. This year's Patroller lessons will be created in the 5"x8" size so content can be added and used as a reminder throughout the year.

Who are you leading?

- ALL students, young and old

Who is looking to you for guidance?

- Students, teachers, staff members, parents, visitors

When is everyone looking to you for leadership and guidance?

- ALWAYS. Whether you're at your post wearing your belt and badge or "off duty," you are ALWAYS being looked at as a role model in your school and your community.

Why have you chosen to become a leader? _____

REMEMBER: Being a leader and a role model shouldn't stop because you feel like it. Being a leader is a trait within you that should be present at all times. Always meet the standards you set for others. If you start to lose focus, re-read your "Why have you chosen to become a leader" card.
