

Read Before You Go
 It helps to look at a map and read about a place before you visit. Things will be more familiar when you see them in person.

What other words might be fun to know?

- Hello
- Good Morning
- Please
- Thank You
- Have A Good Day

Learn Key Phrases
 Learn a few words of the local language. We suggest:

Try Local Foods
 You can eat chicken nuggets at home. Try foods that kids enjoy where you're visiting.

People Watching
 Notice the people you see when you travel. What are they wearing? What language are they speaking? Do they wear different clothes than you do? What is interesting about them?

Visit Local Stores
 Visit the local grocery store and see what different types of foods they have. Are the toys different?

Ask A Local
 Ask the people who work at your hotel what restaurants they like that serve traditional local foods.
