

The holiday season in Europe is like a fairytale. It's a magical time of year made even more special by the enchanting Christmas markets.

Christmas Markets originated in Germany back in the 14th century (the 1500s).

Starting on Advent at the end of November and continuing until noon on Christmas Eve, the markets are also called (meaning "Christ child market) or .

Stroll through the decorated markets full of twinkly lights with delicious local food like (gingerbread) and warm local beverages like and you'll find lots of fun toys and prizes.
